

THE WINDOW WORKBOOK FOR HISTORIC BUILDINGS

THE WINDOW CONFERENCE AND EXPOSITION FOR HISTORIC BUILDINGS

December 2-4, 1986

Boston, Mass.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction and Acknowledgements	i
Part 1 - PRESERVATION REQUIREMENTS
Standards for Rehabilitation and Guidelines for Rehabilitating Historic Buildings (Windows)	1-1
The Repair of Historic Wooden Windows Preservation Brief No. 9	1-6
The Repair and Thermal Upgrading of Historic Steel Windows: Preservation Brief No. 13	1-13
Interpreting the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation	1-25
Specification Requirements for Proposed Window Replacement in Historic Buildings	1-83
Specification Requirements for Proposed Storm Windows in Historic Buildings	1-85
Part 2 - HISTORIC TECHNOLOGY
A Technical History of Late Nineteenth Century Windows in the United States	2-1
The Schermerhorn Row Block: A Study in Nineteenth- Century Building Technology in New York City	2-8
Building Construction and Superintendence	2-49
Part 3 - PLANNING
Sources of Information: Preservation and Preservation Related Organizations	3-1
Sources of Information: Industries	3-4
Windows, Historic Buildings and the Requirements	3-7
Special Considerations of Window Treatments for High-Rise Commercial Buildings	3-13
Window Restoration--Evaluation and Planning	3-28
Next Window Please	3-33

Part 4 - ENERGY

Energy Conservation Strategies for Windows in the Sunbelt	4-1
A Comparison of Products for Reducing Heat Loss through Windows	4-7
Council Notes: Savings by Insulating Doors and Windows	4-14
The Weatherstripping of Windows and Doors	4-20

Part 5 - REPAIRS

Steel Windows: Where We Are in 1986	5-1
The Rehabilitation of Wooden Frames	5-13
Renewing Historic Windows	5-24
In-House Restoration for Religious Institutions-- An Alternative Approach	5-27
Repair/Replace With Wood Windows	5-35

Part 6 - REPLACEMENT

Double Glazing	6-1
Aluminum Replacement Windows: Specifying to Assure Quality and Performance	6-6
Windows in Marine Environment	6-14
Making Window Sash	6-17
External Walls: Joints with Windows and Doors: Detailing for Sealants	6-23
External Walls: Joints with Windows and Doors: Application of Sealants	6-25
Preventing Decay in External Joinery	6-27

Part 7 - HARDWARE, GLASS AND ACCESSORIES

Protecting Interior Furnishings	7-1
Protecting Stained Glass	7-9

Conservation of Historic Window Glass 7-17

Builders' Hardware: Window Sash Hardware 7-24

Part 8 - MANUFACTURERS' SOURCES AND PRODUCT LITERATURE

Background 8-1

Window Directory for Historic Buildings 8-2

Product Literature 8-33